

Information on incurred losses due to hurricanes in North America, etc.

We would like to express our sincerest sympathies to all who have been affected by the natural catastrophes.

Tokio Marine Holdings, Inc. (President and Group CEO: Tsuyoshi Nagano) announced today that it currently expects the estimated pre-tax incurred losses (net of reinsurance) of the Group attributable to Hurricanes Harvey, Irma and Maria, and the earthquakes in Mexico, which occurred in August and September, to be approximately 65.0 billion yen. The breakdown of losses by these events is as follows;

Estimated incurred losses

billions of yen

Hurricane Harvey	approx. 21.0
Hurricane Irma	approx. 32.0
Hurricane Maria	approx. 9.0
Mexico Earthquakes	approx. 3.0
Total	approx. 65.0

The above figures are based on information available as of October 12, 2017. The ultimate losses associated with these events may differ, possibly materially, due to further progress of claims investigations and the complexity of factors contributing to the losses.

Our Group maintains strict risk management, and the adjusted net assets for Tokio Marine Holdings for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 is around 3.8 trillion yen. We believe the losses reported on herein will have a minor impact on the financial soundness of Tokio Marine Holdings.
