Tokio Marine Holdings, Inc.

Tokio Marine Group is selected as a 2019 CDP Climate Change A-List Company

Tokio Marine Holdings, Inc. (President and Group CEO: Satoru Komiya, hereinafter “TMHD”) proudly announces that TMHD is selected as a prestigious 2019 Climate Change A-List Company by CDP, an internationally renowned environmental NGO. TMHD is highly recognized as a world-class good company for its climate-related initiatives and disclosures.

CDP’s scoring is widely recognized as a standard for evaluating corporate disclosures of the environmental transparency and performance. Participated companies are rated on a scale of A to D- based on their responses to the issues of climate-related risks and opportunities. In fiscal 2019, more than 8,400 companies worldwide participated to complete CDP’s questionnaires.

In the mid-term business plan “To Be a Good Company 2020” (Period 2018-20), TMHD regards “climate change” as an important material issue. Hence, TMHD corresponds to the issues throughout business activities and do our best for disclosure utmost.

To date, TMHD has achieved a carbon neutral status on a group-wide basis for six consecutive years since fiscal 2013, thanks largely to the CO₂ fixation impact of its mangrove planting project. In addition, Tokio Marine Group has been promoting educational initiatives for students at elementary schools and special support schools, where its employees and agents act as instructors. Such initiatives include “Green Lesson”, an environmental awareness raising program since fiscal 2005, and “Disaster Prevention Lesson”, a disaster risk reduction awareness raising program since fiscal 2012. Recently, the total number of students who participated in the lessons has achieved 100,000.

TMHD will continue to contribute to a creation of a safe, secure and sustainable future together with its stakeholders through all employee participation-oriented initiatives rooted by its self-motivated employees with integrity and compassion, to be trusted by all people and society “To Be a Good Company”.
